Farmingville, NY - Supervisor Ed Romaine has announced that the Brookhaven Animal Shelter and Adoption Center will hold its annual Free Rabies Vaccination Clinic on Saturday, June 7, from 10:00 a.m. to 1:00 p.m. in the parking lot of Brookhaven Town Hall, located at 1 Independence Hill in Farmingville. The event is co-sponsored by the Suffolk County Health Department. Free rabies vaccinations will be provided on a first come, first serve basis with a limited quantity of 600 vaccinations. In order for pets to receive the vaccination, dogs must be on a leash and cats or ferrets must be in pet carriers. Residents can also take advantage of affordable veterinary care at this event, including low-cost booster shots and micro-chipping of pets. Dog licenses will also be available and payment can only be made in cash. The Free Rabies Clinic is open to Suffolk County residents.

Those who are interested in adopting a pet should visit the Brookhaven Animal Shelter and Adoption Center located at 300 Horseblock Road in Brookhaven. The center is open Monday, Tuesday, Thursday and Friday from 9:30 a.m. to 4:00 p.m. (closed Wednesdays), Saturday from 10:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m. and Sunday from 11:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m. For more information, please call the Brookhaven Animal Shelter and Adoption Center at 631-286-4940 or visit www.brookhaven.org/animalshelter.
